Farmers (produce/harvest), Baked Goods/Confectioneries,
Processed Food Products (ready-made meals, canning):

Please describe the produce or food items you would like to sell at the Riverside Market. If you are making ready made meals, e.g. lasagne- where do you purchase your ingredients? Vendors using locally sourced ingredients or materials will be given preference in the application process. No item can be purchased and resold as a homemade item. *Returning vendors please list any new items.

Reselling: Please list any products that you might wish to bring to the Market that have not been produced yourself- this could be produce from a neighbours farm, or products not available within our local area. Please include the product source by name and region. Approval of these products is at the sole discretion of the Market Board, and more information may be requested prior to approval.

In order to maintain transparency with our clientele, all resold produce must be clearly labelled at every Market attended with the product origin.

Artisan Vendor:

Description of the items to be sold:

Please share with us what you are selling at Riverside Farmers Market. Make a list. Briefly explain the process for the creation. Remember all parts of the items to be sold must be handmade by the artisan. No item can be purchased and resold as a handmade item.

Application Guidelines:

All applications are reviewed by the Market Board prior to approval. It takes at least one week for your application to be reviewed – all applicants will be contacted once the review process is complete. You must receive approval before you are permitted to vend.

No Market fees are due until approval has been confirmed.
